Detectives Investigate Stabbing in North Pueblo County

Pueblo, CO: Pueblo County Sheriff's detectives are investigating a stabbing late Saturday that left one man in critical condition with life-threatening injuries. A 36-year-old man has been arrested in connection with the incident.

Deputies responded to the 4700 block of North Interstate 25 just before 10 p.m. on report of stabbing. When they arrived, they discovered a 35-year-old man at the residence had been stabbed. Deputies began providing medical attention to the victim until emergency medical responders arrived. The victim was transported to a local hospital.

The suspect, identified as Francisco Estrada, was located at the residence and was taken into custody without incident. Estrada was arrested for attempted first-degree murder and first-degree assault. He has been booked into the Pueblo County Jail.

The investigation continues and additional information will be released when available.
