Detectives Arrest Man in Convenience Store Burglaries

Pueblo, CO: Pueblo County Sheriff's detectives arrested a 22-year-old man today in connection with two recent burglaries at the JR's Country Store in east Pueblo County.

Donovan Duran was arrested after detectives located him in a car parked in the 300 block of W. Northern Avenue. Through an extensive investigation detectives identified Duran as the suspect in the December 6, 2021, and the January 13, 2022, burglaries of the JR's Country Store, 25100 Highway 50 East.

In both burglaries, the suspect broke a window to gain access to the building and took an undetermined number of cigarettes. In both incidents, a dark-colored vehicle was seen on video arriving and leaving the store around the time the burglaries were reported. Detectives identified Duran in connection with the burglaries.

This afternoon, detectives identified Duran as a passenger in a vehicle that had arrived and parked at the Alta Store, 300 W. Northern Ave. Duran was arrested without incident. The vehicle was reported stolen out of Aurora. Two women in the vehicle were also arrested on outstanding warrants.

Duran was arrested for two counts of second-degree burglary, two counts of criminal mischief and two counts of theft. He has been booked into the Pueblo County Jail.

"I applaud the work of our detectives in identifying and linking this man to both burglaries," said Pueblo County Sheriff Kirk M. Taylor. "They did a great job in tracking down and arresting this suspect."
