Wanted Kansas Fugitive Arrested at Colorado City Hotel

Pueblo, CO: Pueblo County Sheriff's Special Investigations detectives, along with the U.S. Marshals, arrested a 40-year-old man this morning who was wanted on a felony warrant out of Kansas.

The Pueblo County Sheriff's communication center received a tip that Ryan Antalek of Wichita, Kansas was possibly staying at the Days Inn in Colorado City. Kansas authorities had been seeking Antalek, who was considered dangerous, on the warrant and had heightened the search after learning he had made repeated homicidal statements. Antalek also was noted to have a criminal history involving weapons and known to carry firearms.

PCSO detectives responded to the Days Inn at about 12:30 a.m. and located in the parking lot a 2019 Black Chevy Colorado truck Antalek was reportedly driving. After confirming that Antalek was in the hotel, detectives, with assistance from the Marshals, devised a plan and were able to get him to leave his hotel room where he was taken into custody without incident.

Antalek was arrested on a no bond fugitive of justice warrant from Kansas that includes warrants for felony aggravated assault (with a firearm); criminal discharge into a dwelling; felony stalking; felony fleeing and eluding law enforcement; two charges of criminal threats and criminal damage to property. He has been booked into the Pueblo County Jail where he will await extradition to Kansas.
