Three Arrested After Drugs, Gun and Explosives Found in Vehicle

Pueblo, CO: Three people were arrested early Sunday morning after Pueblo County Sheriff's deputies found drugs, a gun, and a live explosive device in a vehicle while investigating a fraud report at a business in Blende.

Deputies responded to Battle Ground Skilled Gaming, 205 Santa Fe Dr., at about 2 a.m. after an employee reported receiving two counterfeit $100 bills from two customers. Deputies contacted and questioned Jackson Gill, 33, and Kayla Dockins, 28, regarding the transaction. Deputies learned that Gill was wanted on a felony warrant out of Huerfano County.

While investigating the incident, deputies looked inside the vehicle that Gill, Dockins, and another man, Gabriel Rivera-Leiba, 37, arrived in and saw suspected drugs, a gun, and what appeared to be a homemade pipe bomb.

Based on what they saw in the vehicles, deputies sought and executed a search warrant and found 15 grams of methamphetamine, the shotgun, an explosive device, and assorted credit cards and identification cards belonging to other individuals. The Pueblo Metro Bomb Team was called out, and it was determined that the pipe bomb was a live explosive device. The device was safely removed from the vehicle.

Gill was arrested for possession of explosives, possession of a forgery instrument, possession of a weapon by a previous offender, special offender, unlawful possession of a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, ID theft, theft, first-degree forgery, and being a fugitive of justice.

Dockins was arrested for possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, possession of explosives, and first-degree forgery. Rivera-Leiba was arrested for criminal possession of an identification document and unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

Gill, Dockins and Rivera-Leiba were all booked into the Pueblo County Jail.
